

-AFRICAN SONG-

(lyrics : Sophie LEBON/ Thibaud DUMAINE)

I close my eyes when I want to see you.
I open my mind, it makes my dreams come true.
Welcome to this place that you know too.
Absence makes the heart grow fonder.
Closely or by far, it doesn't matter!

(I hear a voice inside)	African song
(African song)	World music
(The world is our house)

African mountains in the African seas
(It's the cradle of the life,) of the humanity
God only knows that's a big mystery
(Between the good and the evil) May God forgive us.
(Try once more!) Do our best!

(I feel a heat inside)	Straight in my soul
(Straight in my soul)	In my soul
(Living God is my guide)	In the name of the peace and love.

Open your heart,
all around and everywhere.
Bring down chains and walls,
all together!
Of all our strengths, we can make always better.
Believe it, God will be there.

(I hear a voice inside)	African song
(African song)	I hear a voice inside
(The world is our house)	The world is our house. Living God will be there.

(I feel a heat inside)	I feel a heat inside
(Straight in my soul)	God is my guide
(Living God is my guide)	The world is our house. Living God will be there...
(In the name of the peace and love...)
